CENTRAL COAST COLLECTION:

Inspired by the relaxed, friendly lifestyle enjoyed throughout California's serene coastal towns, these wines best reflect the merits of the diverse growing regions that span from Santa Barbara to Monterey Counties. The wines are approachable in both price and style, and exhibit a Central Coast flavor profile that is suitable to a wide variety of foods. The wines of the Central Coast Collection share one common trait, fruit and regional character.

FROM THE VINEYARD TO THE GLASS:

The fruit for this bottling was sourced primarily from Dierberg Vineyard in Santa Ynez Valley and a small portion of the blend was derived from Wolff Vineyard in Edna Valley. Winemaker Etienne Terlinden processes the fruit in small lots and all punch downs are performed by hand. The wine is aged in 100% French oak with minimal intervention for an average of 10 months.

TASTING NOTES:

The 2013 vintage is an incredibly expressive Pinot with bright raspberry and cherry fruit, touches of pepper, nutmeg and cocoa, vibrant acidity and a long, smooth finish with hints of vanilla oak that will leave you wanting another glass. Try this wonderful Pinot Noir with rosemary seasoned chicken or salmon sushi.
